

Gardner Dance Studio

Sherry's Notes

I AM ASKING FOR YOUR HELP...

We have the studio cleaned once a week so it is important that everyone who uses it picks up after themselves.

- If you have children that play in the lobby please pick up the toys after they are done playing.
- If you change a messy diaper please take it with you!!!
- If there is a spill please let us know so we can clean it up and not track it onto the dance floor.
- Please DO NOT let children play with the merchandise!!

Thanks for all the couples taking the Ballroom dance class, we are having a lot of fun!!! If you are interested in taking this class at some other time please watch the newsletter for the dates of the next session. We are also opening the recital with a couples Foxtrot if you are interested please let me know.

PENNIES FOR LOVE FUNDRAISER

Cathy Rowland's (teacher on Wednesday nights) cousin Ron Gulick was paralyzed from the neck down in an automobile accident in November and is in a rehab center in Colorado. He is making remarkable progress, however the expense of the rehab is stretching his family very thin. Ron, his wife Christa and 5 year old son Jack would appreciate any help they can get!!

We are doing a Pennies for Love fundraiser for them to help with the cost of the rehab. We will be collecting pennies in the large jug out in the lobby until Feb 14th. It is amazing that something as small as a penny can make a difference but it DOES! Please look through your couch cushions, car seats, junk drawer and pockets and donate any pennies you can find.

Please help us in any way you can. For more information and to read about his accident and progress please check out the website:

We are having a dance consignment sale later this spring. If you have anything that your dancers have outgrown and is still in great condition please put it aside and when we have the sale bring it into the studio then we will mark it with the price you are asking for it and place it out for the sale. On the day of the sale you can come and shop for items that your dancer can now use and someone else can pass their items on to you. We will give out checks for all items sold after the sale and return anything that didn't sell. Watch the newsletter for the date of the item drop off and consignment sale.

If you are interested in helping with the recital in any way please contact Sherry, Jacquelyn or Angie. There is lots of things to do.

Practice at home???

A copy of the music your student will be performing to is available. If you are interested please let Sherry know before class. If you supply the blank CD there is no charge, if you want the studio to provide the CD there is a $1.00 fee.

Just a reminder:

All days off are listed in the Policy Sheet you received at the beginning of the year, if there are any that come up through the year we will make sure they are in the newsletter. We will have classes on most days, even if it is a holiday that schools have off. The only time our schedule is the same as the school district is if the weather is bad and USD-231 closes then Gardner Dance Studio will also cancel classes.

This would be a good place to insert a short paragraph about your organization. It might include the purpose of the organization, its mission, founding date, and a brief history. You could also include a brief list of the types of products, services, or programs your organization offers, the geographic area covered (for example, western U.S. or European markets), and a profile of the types of customers or members served.

It would also be useful to include a contact name for readers who want more information about the organization.

This story can fit 175-225 words.

If your newsletter is folded and mailed, this story will appear on the back. So, it's a good idea to make it easy to read at a glance.

A question and answer session is a good way to quickly capture the attention of readers. You can either compile questions that you've received since the last edition or you can summarize some generic questions that are frequently asked about your organization.

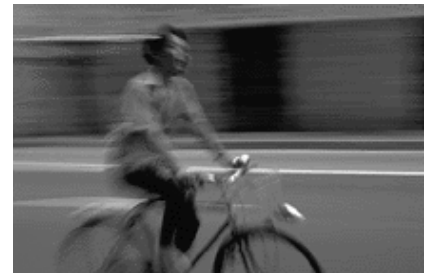

A listing of names and titles of managers in your organization is a good way to give your newsletter a personal touch. If your organization is small, you may want to list the names of all employees.

If you have any prices of standard products or services, you can include a listing of those here. You may want to refer your readers to any other forms of communication that you've created for your organization.

You can also use this space to remind readers to mark their calendars for a regular event, such as a breakfast meeting for vendors every third Tuesday of the month, or a biannual charity auction.

If space is available, this is a good place to insert a clip art image or some other graphic.

Caption describing picture or graphic.
